

A MEDICAL CONFERENCE

NUTRITION AND POLLUTION: FROM THE HEART TO THE AIRWAYS

3 NOVEMBER 2015

09:00 - 13:00

Italian National Research Council – CNR

Sala Marconi

Piazza Aldo Moro, 7 - Rome

SOCIETÀ ITALIANA
PER LO STUDIO
DELL'ARTERIOSCLEROSI
Sezione Regionale Lazio

SIPREC
società italiana
per la prevenzione
cardiovascolare

Programme:

8,30-9,30: Registration

9,30: Welcome greetings by Authorities

10,00: Nutrition and cardiovascular disease prevention:

The Mediterranean diet prolongs life (Roberto Volpe, CNR, Rome)

Nutrition and cardiovascular disease prevention. The peculiarity of the South African diet (Martin Mpe, Mediclinic Heart Hospital, Pretoria)

10,30: New technologies in cardiovascular disease management:

Tele-cardiology & Clinical application of cardio-circulatory simulator (Claudio De Lazzari, CNR, Rome)

New technologies in the management of cardiovascular diseases. The present and future applications in the Republic of South Africa

(Martin Mpe, Mediclinic Heart Hospital, Pretoria)

11,00 Discussion with open questions and by Tweet

11,15 Coffee break

11,45: Pollution and diseases of the airways:

Airways related to environment changes and nutrition (Andrea Di Rienzo Businco, Sandro Pertini Hospital, Rome)

Pollution and its relation to Upper Respiratory Tract Diseases and Ear Infections in South Africa (Glen Monama, Military Hospital, Pretoria)

12,15: Minimal Invasive surgery to improve respiratory wellness reducing social costs (Lino Di Rienzo Businco, Santo Spirito Hospital, Rome)

The state of the art of surgical strategies in the Republic of South Africa (Glen Monama, Military Hospital, Pretoria)

12,45: Discussion

13,00: End of the conference